IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR ALL SEASHORE MEMBERS!

The nominating committee is seeking members willing to serve as officers in SeaShore Porcelain Artists for the 2018 - 2020 term (2 years). If you are interested in holding elective office, please contact a nominating committee member. Remember, our organization needs new ideas to grow and flourish and we get that from member participation....if you haven't served already, give it a try; and if you have served in the past, perhaps a different office may be a new challenge. Please think about donating your time to SeaShore.

Nominating Committee Members: Jackie Dellamano, Karen Nelson, Linda Dean

Next Meeting:

Friday, February 9th @ 9:30am

Demo Artist:

Lauren Hekelnkaemper

Lauren will be giving a presentation on tips and tricks to taking photos of your porcelain with you phone or camera. She will be addressing problems such as white balance, glare and framing.

She will also be bringing her light set up and professional camera to take photos of anyone who wants to participate in the yearbook.

Please dress appropriately to have your photo taken. And, if you would like, bring a porcelain piece to include in the photo with you.

After all, we are artists!

Reminders for January Meeting:

- Bring your Show and Tell and any library books.
- It is not too early to start meals-on-wheels mugs!
- Wear Valentines colors! Red, Pink, Purple! Or dress to the nines for photos for the yearbook.
- Think about nominations for officers for the next term.

President's Message:

Dear Seashore Members,

Where does the time go? The older I get the slower I get. Guess that's old age. Hope everyone is busy painting for the CAPA show. I'm also hopeful some of our members are going. If you don't want to drive, then maybe you can carpool with someone. I still have some forms available. Remember to bring your painted pieces this month and next. Wrap them well and smaller pieces would be nicer. Also bring your pieces for the auction and mark the box "Auction." I will have three in my car. Take care and will see you at the meeting. Be kind to one another.

-Jan Breeding, SeaShore President

White China Sale:

Although the room we gathered in was much smaller, there was a great turnout of tables full of white china! Thanks to everyone that participated. The club didn't make much money, $11.35, but the Sandi McAninch Fund raised $174 from her white china at the sale.

Also, the Christmas Tree and opportunity drawing from the luncheon in December earned $555.89 for the club.

“Please remember our friend Helen Humes. She is very fragile and weak these days; her heart is just not pumping like it used to. Helen may not be up for many visitors now, but if you want to send her a card it would sure lift her spirits and bring a smile to her face. She always asks me about club members and says she wishes she could attend one more meeting!” - Alicia
